THREE MADE HAPPY.

These Are the Cue Experts Who Won in Pool Tournament.

The pool tournament at the Commercial club rolls merrily on, and three more ambitious cue artists were made hapy last evening by capturing the big ends of their games. The first case of this kind was when Cleaver and Crowther crossed cues. Although Cleaver was rated as a better man by the handicaping committee with a mark of 55 to 56 for Crowther, the latter's nerve was sandier at critical times, and he won the game by a score of 50 to 46.

In the second game Rooklidge and Downing were sisted for a finish bout.

The above is a likeness of Andy Donovan, one of the new infielders signed by the Salt Lake team for this season. Donovan played in an amateur team in Cleveland last year and made a great record for himself. In a letter to The Herald he says he is training every day with Micky Flynn, the other Cleve-land player signed, and that both of them will be in fine shape when the season opens. Donovan is a youngster, 22 years of age. He stands 5 feet 10 inches high, and weighs 170 pounds.

Cameleo, together with another Italian and a little girl, had come from Scofield and not catch his name. The strangers were unanimous in the opinion that Young Corbett was a better man than Jimmy, and one man in the crowd, who heeded not Gladstone's advice to count twelve before speaking, started out by saying: "Graney is a thief and that Zritt family is no good."

That clanged the gong for Britt, senior, He swung a vicious left on the stranger's eye and followed it up with a clever right hook on the jaw. The man sank to the floor, down and out. There was no referee, but some young man who was drinking lemonade at the end of the bar suggested that the injured man's wrist should have been slapped.

Cameleo, together with another Italian and a little girl, had come from Scofield and were beating their way. As the train neared the Ogden yards they jumped out, and in doing so Cameleo, was caught under the wheels, his legs being crushed and his left hand severed. The other man hastened to the city for aid and finally reached the police station, where in broken Italian and a little girl, had come from Scofield and were beating their way. New York, April 1.—Jim Jeffries will soon leave this city, accompanied by his manager. Biliy Delaney. Joe Kennedy, his sparring partner, and Kid Eagan, for the west, where he will start training for his fight with Jack Munroe. He will probably train at Los Angeles. Delaney expected to meet Harry Pollock. Munroe's manager, today, to post forfeits for the fight, but learned that Poilock was at San Francisco looking after the interests of Young Corbett. The forfeits, therefore, will not be posted until the party reaches the coast, after which Jeffries will begin active training at once.

BASKETBALL AT LOGAN W. S. A. and B. Y. C. Teams Meet and Each Capture a Victory.

(Special to The Heraid.)

Logan, April 1.—Two games of basket ball were played here today. The first was between the girls' teams of the B. Y. C. and W. S. A. The visiting damsels won by a score of 6 to 0. The first half ended without either side scoring, but in the last half the local lassies gave out and tae Weber girls scored six points. The lineup:

W. S. A. Position. B. Y. C. Izay Pearce L. F. Effie Williams Lucille Parry R. F. Ethel Rich May Higgin-botham C. Lilly Gardner Maria Parry ... L. G. Carrie Jorgensen Lizzie McKay ... R. G. ... The other centest was between the E. Y. C. and W. S. A. imilors, and was a butly played game for the first half, the score being tied at 8. As Weber had two of its first team players in its lineup, Dopp of the B. Y. C. first team, who is a junior, went in and made the game one-sided from that time on. The B. Y. C. scored twenty-six points in the last half, while W. S. A. got ten, making the final score 34 to 18. The lineup:

L. D. S. U. Team Up.

From present indications the trip of the L. D. S. U. basket ball team to Colorado is all off. It will be remembered that the Boulder team promised the L. D. S. U. a return game in Colorado this year, and also promised to arrange a schedule for the Saints to meet the principal teams of that state, and also the champian Cheyenne team.

A letter was received yesterday from Boulder stating that it was impossible to get any of the teams to go in with Boulder and stand part of the expense to bring the Saints east. Boulder said it was more than willing to do its share, but ail of the other Colorado teams had heard of the Mormons and did not want any of their game. The local boys have been training for the trip for some time, and were very much disappointed at being turned down for no other reason than that they could play a good game of basket ball.

The Republican primaries which chose delegates for the state convention to be held in Salt Lake on April 8 were held last night throughout the county. Up until yesterday morning but little interest was taken in the event, but considerable activity developed during the day.

Though it was understood that Senator Kearns' friends were not going to make any effort to carry the primaries, his supporters turned out in force and have evidently a majority of the delegates from tha county. This means the selection of L. W. Shurtliff as delegate to the national convention if the state convention permits the delegates from this county to choose the men to go to chalcago. Angue T. Wright, who is anxious to go to the national convention, cannot even go to the state convention. He was a candidate for delegate from the Fourth ward.
